[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN]

DATES TO SEPTEMBER 13.

Monetary.

NEW YORK Sept 13 —The Post's money article says the money market is easy, with a disposition to lend money at the leading banks. Commercial paper is unchanged blanks steady but Irregular Government stocks dull Railroad stocks steady

Flour 15 and 25c—better but with light demand Wheat firmer—closed like flour Corn without decided change

The Commercial's money article says: We understand that the Secretary of the Treasury has decided upon paying off at an early day the remaining portion of the temporary loan represented by clearing house certificates amounting to $46 5[illegible] 000 The banks have presented a memorial to the Secretary requesting that the liquidation be made in installments their desire being to have payments made in four equal parts

Accident on Long Island.

The Electioneering Party.

COSHOCTON (O ) Sept 13 —The Presidential party have halted at several places on the way to Pittsburg The President made speeches at each place which were well received by the people

Armament for Canada.

TORONTO (C W ) Sept 13 —A complete armament of Armstrong's field guns sufficient to equip two batteries of volunteer militia, is on the way from England The Government will purchase 1,000 horses for the use of the artillery

Maine Election.

AUGUSTA, Sept 13 —The Kennebec Journal has official returns from 428 cities towns and plantations which give Chamberlain Union, 61 215 Pillsbury 35,922 Chamberlain's majority thus far is 25,293 The same towns last year gave Howard, Democrat, 20,970

From Europe.

CHICAGO, Sept. 13 —European files furnish the following The Paris Moniteur of Sept 1st says the Emperor in accepting the cession of Venetia was guided by a desire of contributing to remove one of the principal causes of the late war, and to hasten the suppression of hostilities. As soon as the conclusion of an armistice was decided upon in Italy, the Government of His Majesty employed its efforts to prepare the way for the conclusion of peace between the Cabinets of Vienna and Florence, and as it was necessary to arrange the preliminaries of the advances made to His Majesty the Emperor Francis Joseph A treaty to this effect was signed on the 24th of last month between France and Austria, and ratifications were exchanged on the 31st of August at Vienna. In virtue of this act the transfer of the fortresses and territories of Lombardy and Venice will be made by Austria to a French commissioner now in Venetia. The delegate of France will then arrange with the Venetian authorities the transfer to them of the right of possession which he will have received and the population called upon to make their decision on the future destiny of their country with this reservation. His Majesty has not hesitated to declare since the 29th of July that he consented to the union of Venetia with the Kingdom of Italy

The Vienna Volksfreund, a clerical organ, contains a curious report to the effect that the Pope is to give up Rome to be the capital of Italy reserving to himself the Vatican and St Peters, while Venetia is to be given over to the papacy as temporal property Austria preserving the right of garrison in the Quadrilateral and holding part of Melomoco for her fleet

In diplomatic circles at Berlin an immediate reapprochment is expected between the courts of Berlin and Vienna. According to some accounts the initiation of this policy was taken by the King but Count Bismark is now also in favor of an alliance with Austria.

A Vienna paper has sensational intelligence of the betrothal of the Prince Imperial of France with the eldest daughter of the Prince Royal of Prussia.

The exchange of the ratification of peace between Austria and Prussia took place at Prague, August 30th. The treaty was to be published at Berlin and Vienna on the 1st of September A Berlin dispatch says declarations of adhesion have been received from all the States invited by Prussia. Further preliminary steps are being taken for actual completion of the north German Confederation as soon as the Prussian Parliament shall have adopted the annexation bill and the preliminary regulations for the administrative arrangement of these States have been prepared The peace treaty is said to contain an article relating to the Elbe duchies stipulating that Prussia shall continue to pay all pensions granted by Austria to Holstein officials that Austria shall pay Prussia 450 000 Danish thalers belonging to the Holstein treasury and that the authors of the Holstein Treaty shall be called to account for reasons connected with past events.

NEW YORK, Sept. 13.—The Herald's Berlin letter says these conditions were so distasteful that the King of Saxony had already declared that he would rather not resume the crown Bavaria has been kicking hard against the sacrifices of territory exacted, and at one time it almost appeared as if the negotiations would be broken off and hostilities resumed, but Prussia abated her pretensions and a compromise had finally been arranged by which Bavaria retains the Palatinate and only gives up a strip of land in Upper Franconia, besides paying an indemnity of 35,000,000 florins The clean sweep made by Prussia in north Germany has struck terror in the hearts of many who have as yet escaped annexation, and who hasten to propitiate their formidable neighbor while it is time. The King of Prussia will add a new and special portfolio to his ministry, to be devoted to the affairs of Germany, and it is rumored that Herr Rozenbach, one of the principal members of the Progress party, will be the minister

The French Government having represented to Austria how difficult, after the conclusion of peace, would be the position of the Italian Ministry in regard to Garibaldi's action, unless Austria should make some concession on the question of frontier, Austria consented to cede the northern bank of Lago Di Garda to Italy This position is important from a strategic point of view, and it will moreover greatly tend to tranquilize the public mind. Prussia intends convoking a conference of all the German States, including Austria, to discuss a mutual arrangement of the German railway system. After the conclusion of peace between Austria and Italy, the Emperor of Austria will officially recognize the Kingdom of Italy and send an Embassador to Florence The condition made by Austria is that the Italian Government will restore the private property of the Grand Duke of Tuscany and the Duke of Modena, both Austrian Archdukes. She also asks for the restoration of the private property of the King of Naples, but in the case of the ex Dukes, the restitution is made a condition of recognition, while in the latter case it is only suggested as the wish of Austria.

The Pope has resolved to remain at Rome under any circumstances He will shortly resume the negotiations with Italy which were commenced last year. Baron Ricasoli is said to have declared that no negotiations shall be opened with the Papal Government before the evacuation of Rome by the French

Since the exodus of the German Diet from Augsburg, little has been heard of it The corps diplomatic who had favored it, dropped off one by one till none were left but the embassadors of Russia and Belgium, who have now been recalled by their respective courts.

The Herald's correspondent says Napoleon's health is very precarious and he cannot possibly live a year longer He is suffering much from a painful disorder, the effect of juvenile indiscretion

LONDON, Sept. 13.—It is reported that the King of Saxony will abdicate in favor of his son

The preliminary negotiations between Prussia and Saxony have led to the following results The King at Dresden will have a permanent guard exclusively composed of Saxon troops but possessing rather the character of a national guard than of an important military force Very important fortifications have been erected near Dresden, which like other military positions in Saxony will be garrisoned by the Prussians. The King of Saxony will recall all his diplomatic representatives from abroad, but Prussia will not object to his retaining the right of receiving foreign ministers at his court.

The Saxon army will be marched into Prussia, disbanded and disarmed That portion of the soldiers who have only served their first three years, will be incorporated with the Prussian army, while those serving the last three years of their term of service in Saxony and which served six years, will be relieved from future military service. An examination of the Saxon Ministry is to take place, and the names of Ministers will be communicated to the King of Prussia before they are definitely appointed.

LONDON, Sept. 12—Noon —The Times editorially admits that the Empire of Mexico has withered away, and thinks the country should be left to itself

Consols for money, 89⅝; 5 20 s 73¼

LIVERPOOL, Sept 12—Noon —The steamship City of London sailed for New York, taking £101 000

PARIS, Sept 12, M —Napoleon has sent a special envoy to Mexico to confer with Maximilian

VIENNA Sept 12 M —The negotiations for peace between Austria and Italy are making rapid progress.

BERLIN Sept 12— The 'Algemeine Zeitung' has an article on the Eastern question the re-opening of which, by Russia, it says cannot be from pacific motives or for peaceful purposes

BUCHAREST Sept 12 —It has been determined that two members of Prince Charles Cabinet shall soon go on a mission to Constantinople to urge the recognition of Hospodur

It is needless to say that the following specimen of correct and powerful writing is from the pen of W G T'Vault of the Idaho Index—widely known as "Old T" The article bears the caption of "Slander," printed in huge black letters

"It has been concocted and posted by some brainless Jackal who, doubtless imagined in the lust of his ignorance, he was doing something smart The thing was so utterly devoid of wit that it only received the supreme contempt of sensible men If there is one hole or pit in the regions of hell where the damned are entitled, that is deeper, hotter and more scorching that is the place for the midnight slanderer and assassin who seeks to defame the character of those who he fails to be able to associate with. The abortion of the witless Hyena who attempted to ridicule, has the silent consolation of listening to his own disgracefull effort as uttered from the mouth by all good men

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER

FROM OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENT

WASHINGTON, D C , Aug 13, 1866

The President has great trouble with his New Orleans massacre. It turns out worse than was expected and it is extremely difficult to satisfy the so called "Conservatives" with the action of the President. An attempt was made at first to cover up the facts A censor was put over the telegraph at New Orleans, but this was futile, as the correspondents sent all the facts by mail, and two or three of the leading journals were inclined to tell all they knew General Sheridan's dispatches were garbled The New York Times had one version and the Tribune another, and finally it was said he had sent two or three dispatches to the President and that one was published in the Times and another in the Tribune! The truth seems to be that the dispatches were garbled in the White House or the War Department, probably in the former place, as Mr Stanton's sympathies are yet with the Radicals though he has not the courage to break with the President. In many quarters the New Orleans outrage has operated injuriously to the President and his "policy." Take the New York Evening Post for example It was evidently going in for the Philadelphia Convention and the President's plans before the affair at New Orleans, but the murderous attack upon the Union men of that city, by the old rebellious inhabitants, startled the Post people Especially was this true of the conduct of the President. He had been prating about the right of admission to representation in Congress all winter and during the spring According to his theory Louisiana was just like New York or Oregon, having the same right It was therefore a startling proceeding for the President to overthrow the State Government as he did by force First he sent a most impudent dispatch to Gov Wells and when the reply came and it was unsatisfactory to the President and his backer Mr Seward, the next step was to put the military power of the United States into the hands of the Attorney General, and the Lieutenant Governor! Gov Wells was ignored altogether! The Evening Post, which is edited and managed by such men as Bryant and Nordhoff, could not get down and eat up its own words at the dictation of Seward or the coarse turncoat, Andy Johnson. Raymond of the Times is accustomed to jumping quick from the top rail of a fence, and to circus-riding. He is nimble of foot and is never hampered with "principles" Not so with Bryant and Godwin They have principles and like to stick to them Godwin, by the way, is in Europe, but he doubtless has his say in reference to the general management of the paper

Mr Seward, I am told, is a good deal troubled by the severe criticisms of the Post. It is a leading organ of public opinion, and all along has treated the President very kindly Now, Mr Seward rather likes to have a little respectability attached to his party. Andy Johnson was brought up coarse and ignorant, and he likes grovelling rum suckers and bruisers as well as he does polished gentlemen Not so, with Mr Seward So he is grieved at the course of the Evening Post. There is another thing that troubles Mr Seward greatly—the letter of the recent Post master-General—Mr. Dennison, of Ohio. He gives a very graphic history of the downward career of the President It reminds one of the history of a pious youth who finally turns out a horse-thief or gambler. The President began a fierce Unionist—a determined punisher of treason—and a great friend of radical Republicans How is he now? Has he not changed as much as the pious boy who in the midst of the temptations of the great city becomes a gamester or a forger? It is a sad business, and it pains one to read the letter of Mr. Dennison as it recites the various steps taken by the President Mr Seward is vexed at the letter, for he knows it will have a decided effect upon the elections in the west.

The present prospect is good—for the Republicans. The tide may turn the other way before November, but I doubt it. The Democrats are quite confident that they can make use of the Philadelphia Convention to swell their vote The Johnson Republicans (it is claimed) will select candidates running who favor the admission, without further conditions, of the representatives from the rebel States. If they do this, they will of course select the Democratic candidates. But there are many true Democrats who are disgusted with the President, and it should never be forgotten that the soldiers are at home. They are pretty sure to vote with the radicals.

Seward tells his friends he is certain of the success of the opposition ticket, but other men in the cabinet are not so sure of it. McCulloch, for instance, is not Welles, of the navy department, who is very much of an old fogy in his department, has some political sagacity, and he is not so sure of success as Mr Seward is—at least so I hear But Welles never yet gave up a bird in hand for one or a dozen in the bush. I don't know that I can blame him. No new administration will ever give Mr. Welles a place, and he knows it. So he sticks to his bread and butter With Seward and McCulloch it is not a matter of bread for they are deeply interested in the success of "my policy," which is theirs quite as much as it is the President's. They are in an exciting contest and of course desire to win

It is amusing to see the operations of the Johnson men in Massachusetts. There are not more than three hundred all told in the commonwealth, and of this number two hundred are so ashamed of the movement that they will have nothing to do publicly with the Philadelphia Convention The managers are old political jobbers who were long ago kicked off from the Whig and Democratic parties, and a few Republicans who have a just for office I do not conceal the fact that John Quincy Adams (son of our minister at London), has written a letter in favor of the Johnson policy. But he is too respectable and fastidious to herd with the Johnson men, and contents himself with writing a letter on dainty paper That was done to suit his father, who is and has been a genuine disciple of Seward. Minister Adams, it is known, stands with Mr Seward on reconstruction but as he may yet become a formidable candidate for the Presidency (owing to his absence during the reconstruction troubles), he is reticent. He will not play the fool as Harvey did at Madrid

I hear strange stories respecting the manipulation of Sheridan's dispatches in the White House It is whispered about the War Department that Sheridan tendered his resignation and refused to take his orders from a rebel ex-General. It would not be surprising if this all were true and that the President has carefully concealed the dispatches, but the history will eventually come out in spite of all efforts to conceal it In fact, I surmise that Mr Stanton has not tried very hard to suppress the facts and that they have, some of them, crept out at his dinner table.

The result of the election in Kentucky will help the Republicans The open rebels have triumphed there over the Johnson party This is just how it will soon be in all the Southern States—when they can vote without fear of the troops of the United States The people of the North and West see this and mean to fight against it

You will learn by telegraph the doings of the Philadelphia Convention and its results long before this letter reaches you, but it may not be amiss to say something about it. In the first place, the Republicans seem to have very little anxiety respecting it It is got up as every one knows, to help the opposition A third party cannot be organized, and the President has no such purpose. He means to break down the Republicans in twenty or thirty Congressional districts so that the 40th Congress will let in the Southern Senators and Representatives That done, he proposes to fall back upon his Unionism and demand of the South in return for his treachery to the Republican party, acquiescence in the Union the war debt, and the nominal freedom of the negroes. If they will do that, for all he cares they may "control labor" at the South to almost any extent by legislation and may vote for Jeff Davis or Aleck Stephens for any office if they like The people will have to decide it, and we shall soon see how they will decide it

ONCE A WEEK.

THE following is an extract from a letter received by the last steamer by Speaker Colfax from the Hon John Bright "I watch with great interest what is passing with you The amendment to your Constitution, just passed Congress seems to me to include what is really needful and I hope it will soon receive the sanction of the required number of States to make it final and irrevocable."

NEWSPAPERARCHIVE®

The Daily Oregonian.

SATURDAY MORNING, SEPT 15 1866

A Conservative in Deep Trouble

The Statesman of the 10th inst devotes a column to Governor Brownlow of Tennessee, and ends its essay with the declaration that this staunch Unionist is no better man or citizen than Jefferson Davis. It is the Statesman's right to hold what opinion it pleases on this subject, and as that paper has become essentially Copperhead, we are rather glad than otherwise, to witness its candor. We shall expect to find it in its next issue, drawing comparisons between Abraham Lincoln and Jefferson Davis, to the manifest disparagement of the martyr President.

The Statesman also devotes a column to William Lloyd Garrison and Senator George H. Williams. The former is roundly abused for being an Abolitionist, as if he were about the only one in the universe, while the latter is called to account for having imprudently, and without consulting the conservative Statesman subscribed to the Garrison testimonial in company with the poet Bryant, the soldier Barlow, and the patriot Stevens. Truly Senator Williams' offense is rank and worthy of the deepest execration! Can he survive the disgrace of "having been found in such company as we have named"? Wouldn't it have been altogether more reputable for the Senator to have sat with his legs under the Presidential mahogany, tippling with Johnson and his rebel associates until he was intoxicated sufficiently to make a good Democratic speech, and then to have appeared in public, uttering terrible maledictions against the "Abolitionists" couched in language as maudlin as that of the Statesman in its two last issues, or that of its "Moses" on the 22d of February?

The Statesman has another trouble. In every issue it talks wildly about something which it calls the "dread Mokanna." This "Mokanna," it appears has "fiend like features," and wears a "silver veil" with "interstices" in it. What all this amounts to, it is not easy to perceive, for the Statesman, instead of enlightening us upon it, talks mysteriously and with an uncertain meaning. This much, however, is evident. The "dread Mokanna" is something which is supposed to be the enemy of "my policy," and which threatens the defeat of Senator Nesmith. Probably it is the murdered ghost of Civil Rights which rises up before Johnson and Nesmith and their supporters, and which, like that of Banquo, will not "down." Or it may be the genius of Perfidy which incessantly pursues and haunts those who have betrayed the principles for which half a million of our brothers gave their lives. But whatever it is, it allows the Statesman people no rest. Can these dreadful imaginings proceed from the same source from whence our worthy President draws his grand inspirations?

We deeply pity those who are in distress about the growth of "Abolitionism." They who are doomed to fight this "monster," are really the most unhappy and unfortunate of their race. The Statesman talks precisely as Democratic journals did a dozen years ago. It has the whole of the great battle to fight over again. Sisyphus had a not more discouraging job. If the Statesman will pardon us an anti-climax, a favorite figure of its own, we will further illustrate by saying that the enterprise it is engaged in is as profitless as that of its old plantation friends who frequently had the misfortune, when hunting down their chattels, to run a "cold trail." The Statesman is running a "cold trail" now. Perhaps it may yet discover that slavery is no more, and that "Abolitionism" is a fact as unalterable as the law of gravitation.

Pushing Westward.—It is announced in the Salt Lake Telegraph of August 30th, that the Union Pacific Railroad now brings passengers and freight as far westward as Fort Kearney. Denver boasts of being only three days' journey from the rail, with an excellent prospect of that being lessened twenty or thirty hours before Christmas. Indeed, the calculation is to have the rails laid as far as Cottonwood this fall, and as much as possible of this road to Julesburg graded also before the snows forbid work. If the river continues open to Omaha, ties and rails are to be forwarded this season, and stored at Cottonwood, ready and sufficient to continue the line to Julesburg, to which point it is contemplated the cars will be running next summer, or by the first of July.

George H. Pendleton lately made a speech at Maysville, Kentucky, wherein he spoke of the Union party as "the Northern horde now in possession of the Government." Almost the identical words which the Nesmith organ at Salem uses to designate the Union party.

OREGON LEGISLATURE.

Fourth Regular Session.

Senate.

THURSDAY, Sept. 13th, 1866.

Prayer by Rev D. Leslie.

Mr CARTWRIGHT gave notice of a bill to repeal the militia law of this State. Also, a bill to amend the act incorporating the city of Salem.

On motion of Mr PYLE, 1,000 copies of the Inaugural address of Gov Woods were ordered printed.

Mr JOHNSON introduced a resolution to concur with the amendments to the Constitution of the State of Oregon, proposed by the last Legislative Assembly. The articles proposed are as follows.

ARTICLE I.

The Legislative Assembly may at any time, provide for the election of supreme and circuit judges, in distinct classes, as provided in the Constitution of this State.

ARTICLE II.

The Legislative Assembly may at any time alter or modify the salaries of any officers provided for in the Constitution of this State. Provided, that the salary of no officer, whose salary is provided for by the Legislature, shall be increased or diminished during his continuance in office.

ARTICLE III.

The members of the Legislative Assembly shall receive for their services a sum not exceeding four dollars a day from the commencement of the session; but such pay shall not exceed in the aggregate, two hundred and forty dollars for per diem allowance for any one session. When convened in extra session by the Governor, they shall receive four dollars per day.

Some discussion arose upon the question to adopt the resolution, several of the Senators wishing a division of the question, so that they could vote for one or more of the articles and against the others. Most of them favored the first article, while some favored all. Mr. JEFFRIES was opposed to all the articles.

On motion of Mr JOHNSON the resolution was referred to the Judiciary Committee.

The Senate concurred in S J R. requesting the Secretary of State to furnish members with a copy each of the general Statutes of Oregon.

The Senate also concurred in a resolution of the House to appoint a joint committee to whom shall be referred certain portions of the Governor's message and the President appointed on the part of the Senate, Messrs. Palmer and Pyle.

The Senate adjourned.

AFTERNOON—2 O CLOCK

Mr DONNELL asked and obtained leave to make a report from Committee on Federal Relations, recommending the adoption of S. J. R. No 3, to ratify the constitutional amendment.

Mr HINSDALE moved the adoption of the resolution.

Mr MILLER. I would like to hear the resolution read.

The Clerk read the resolution.

Mr MILLER moved to lay the resolution on the table. On this question the yeas and nays were demanded, and resulted as follows.

YEAS—Messrs Bayley, Caldwell, Crawford, Cyrus, Huston, Jean, Jeffries and Miller—8.

NAYS—Messrs Brown, Cartwright, Cranston, Dolph, Donnell, Ford, Hinsdale, Johnson, Lowell, Palmer, Pyle, Stearns, Watson, Mr President—14.

So the motion was negatived.

Mr JOHNSON. As members on the other side of the House evidently desire to discuss this question, and possibly some on this side would like to express their views, it might be well enough to postpone the consideration of the resolution, say till to-morrow. I move to make it the special order for to-morrow at half past 10 o clock A.M.

Mr FORD. We have rules here by which committees are to be governed in making reports. I understand it is not the prerogative of one to make a report without the knowledge or consent of the others. One of the members of the committee does not agree to the report. He desires to make a report. This way of proceeding is one that I never knew or heard of before.

Mr DONNELL. I desire to explain. I gave notice to the members of the committee and the committee met this morning and discussed this matter. One of the committee did not agree to the report—the others did—a majority agreed to it. The majority instructed me to report.

Mr BAYLEY. I would like to have this question come on now. I desire to vote upon it. I have received intelligence that one of my children is sick, and I shall be under the necessity of going home. Should like to have the question come on this afternoon.

Mr JOHNSON withdrew the motion to postpone.

Mr HUSTON. I shall offer a few remarks not to enlighten anybody but rather to get enlightened myself. This is nothing more or less than a proposition to amend the Constitution of the United States. It is an important question. I want to know what authority we have to act upon such a [illegible]. There is not any authorized copy of the amendment proposed by Congress. I have seen newspaper copies. There is no authentic proof officially that Congress has proposed any such amendment. We are about to pass upon it with [illegible] knowledge or consideration at all [illegible] only of ordinary importance. Others may have examined this matter in all its bearings—I have not. It should be thoroughly discussed. An amendment to the Constitution of the United States or even to our State Constitution is an important matter which may affect us the people of the United States, and it may be all the world for all [illegible]. I have not examined the resolution. [illegible] as important as [illegible] the resolution read once. If there is [illegible] copy of the amendment [illegible], we ought to have it so that we may know what we are doing.

Mr JEFFRIES. I would like to have time to examine the resolution. [illegible] ought to be well enough to have it printed. [illegible] take time for the full discussion of so important a question. I would like to have the resolution postponed a few days and therefore move to make it the special order for next Wednesday. The motion was seconded.

Mr CARTWRIGHT. I am willing to postpone it a reasonable time but not till Wednesday. I am going to vote for the resolution—the opposition will vote against it. I can see no reason for putting off the time for doing what they will do in any event. Besides have time to [illegible] for consideration and to know all there is in the amendment.

Mr CARTWRIGHT moved to make the resolution the order for 10 30 to-morrow (Friday).

Mr HINSDALE was ready to vote now or to-morrow. Disposed to accommodate gentlemen.

Mr HUSTON reiterated his statement that he did not know what the resolution was. Wanted time to examine it.

Mr CRANSTON. The amendment has been a long time before the people of the United States. If gentlemen do not understand it it is their own fault. Did not want any long postponement. Prepared to act now.

Mr BAYLEY. How do members know officially that Congress has submitted any such amendment?

Mr CARTWRIGHT. The Governor has informed us in his message that he had received an official copy from the Secretary of the United States and the Governor has transmitted that official copy to the Legislature.

Mr DOLPH. I am ready to vote now or at any other time. Am willing to listen to the discussion of the question but opposed to a longer postponement than to-morrow at 10 o clock. If the opponents of the resolution want a longer time than that, I shall vote to go on now.

Mr HUSTON. Like the gentleman from Benton I want to know what official information we have to act upon. If the Secretary has any such, we have not. I heard the Governor's Message yesterday and the resolution to-day. That is all the information we have. The Senate ought to act with some formality—with at least a decent self respect.

Mr DOLPH. A part of the resolution—the printed portion—is cut from the printed copy of the Governor's Message. If any gentleman has doubts about the authenticity of the copy he can be satisfied by evidence in the office of the Secretary of State.

Mr CARTWRIGHT. The fact that the Senator from Lane does not know anything about the proposed amendment is no evidence that others are ignorant. There are doubtless many things the Senator will never know anything about. The Secretary of State of the United States may have made a mistake that he did not notify the Senator from Lane of the fact that Congress had submitted this amendment. But the Governor of Oregon had published an official copy. He thought that sufficient. The information had come through official sources. He was ready to vote, but desired to hear what the opposition had to say. Willing to postpone till to-morrow.

Mr PYLE favored the motion to make the resolution the order for to-morrow, because it shortens the time of postponement. Would prefer to vote now, that the Senator from Benton might be present. Wanted this matter disposed of before the Senatorial election, so that important legislation might be attended to.

Mr PALMER. A month's discussion will change no man's vote. Our minds are all made up. Would like to vote now but consent to postpone till to-morrow, to hear what the opposition have to say.

Mr JOHNSON. There is policy in war it is said. There may be an excellent reason for postponing the resolution till to-morrow. The gentleman from Lane is evidently seeking light, and may be on the stool of repentance. Perhaps, if we give him a little time he may become converted. No member ought ever, hereafter, to excuse himself for voting wrong, by saying he was ignorant of the matter under consideration. If the Senator has no information about this amendment, give him time to find out what it is, and what Congress has been quarreling about for the last six months. Give him time to learn what mean the Union majorities which are coming up from the people—speaking their verdict in favor of this amendment. Give him time.

The motion to postpone till to-morrow at 10 30 was agreed to.

The Senate adjourned.

House.

Session opened with prayer by Rev Mr Williams of the Episcopalian Church.

The SPEAKER announced the following standing Committees, stating that as he was not acquainted with all the members it was possible that injustice might be done to some, and that if such should be the case the proper corrections would be cheerfully made.

On Judiciary—Messrs Olney, Gehr, Helm, Upton and Starkweather.

On Elections—Messrs Garlick, Humason and Olney.

On Education—Messrs Herman, Cochran and Locey.

On Ways and Means—Messrs Upton, Whiteaker and Lockhart.

On Claims—Messrs. Ross, Davis and Whiteaker.

On Military Affairs—Messrs. Roland, Worth and Dodge.

On Roads and Highways—Messrs Gingles, Avery and Cole.

On Engrossed Bills—Messrs Hendershot, Hyman and Withers.

On Enrolled Bills—Messrs. Moore, Rhodman and Garrett.

On Printing—Messrs White, Loring, and Nicklin.

On Indian Affairs—Messrs Humason, Ross and Olney.

On Incorporations—Messrs Starkweather, Helm and Herman.

On Commerce—Messrs Rosenheim, Worth and Dempsey.

On Counties—Messrs. Cox, Stouffer and Hindman.

On motion of Mr HERMAN one hundred copies of the list of Committees were ordered printed for the use of the members.

A communication from the Secretary of State was received, stating that, under the existing law, he could not comply with the requisition of the House (made yesterday) for copies of the general laws to be distributed to the members. On motion of Mr HUMASON a joint resolution authorizing the Secretary of State to furnish said laws to the members of the Legislature was passed.

Mr HUMASON presented a petition from the Grant county contestants for seats in the House, setting forth that the votes of five precincts in that county had been wrongfully rejected, and that the votes of two companies of soldiers were illegally counted, thus thwarting the will of the people, and praying that therefore the seats now held by Messrs. Brents and McKean be transferred to them. Referred to the Committee on Elections.

A QUESTION OF PRIVILEGE.

Mr UPTON arose to a question of privilege, calling the attention of the House to the report of the proceedings of Monday last—the first day of the session—as it appears in the OREGONIAN. The first thing he desired to call attention to was in reference to the ruling of the Chair on the question to lay upon the table. The report represents the Speaker as ruling the motion debatable. The facts that occurred are, the Speaker simply ruled that he would permit the debate in the then unorganized assembly to continue, as an act of courtesy to those who were supposed to be in the minority. The report also places myself in the ridiculous attitude of attempting, upon two successive occasions, to make a motion without being able to obtain the ear of the Chair, and of being crowded down by unparliamentary conduct on the part of two gentlemen who, in reality, conducted themselves with the utmost decorum. It also represents me as attempting to make a motion which I certainly did not attempt to make. Neither did the gentleman from Wasco, or any other gentleman, attempt to interrupt me in what I desired to say. A personal explanation to me from the reporter induces me to say nothing further upon the subject, he having disclaimed all intention to misrepresent me. Should such a gross mistake hereafter occur in regard to myself, I shall attempt to ventilate what I conceive to be the reasons that induced the errors I have pointed out.

Mr OLNEY. I regret as much as the gentleman does that any errors should have crept into the reports of the debates of this body and I learn by conversation with the reporter that his regrets are deeper and stronger than the gentleman's or mine. Any erroneous report would not only bring in question his professional character as a reporter, but also his character as a gentleman and his reputation for fairness and justice, and would doubtless be more injurious to him than it would be to any member of this House to be misrepresented. It is due to him that the circumstances under which the report was made should be stated. He was crowded into the galleries and obliged to make his notes with pencil and paper upon his knee, and it was extremely difficult, it was impossible, at that distance, and on account of the reverberations of this hall, and the excitement attending the debate, to keep track of the conflicting motions and remarks. I wish to say further that the reporter assures me that there is no motive lying behind or unseen which could induce him to depart from a fair report of any gentleman's remarks.

On motion of Mr LAMSON the Sergeant-at-Arms was authorized to employ a page for the House.

A message from the Senate announced Messrs Palmer, Jeffries and Cyrus a joint committee on enrolled bills, in accordance with the rules.

Mr NICKLIN offered a resolution that the House meet daily at 9½ o clock A. M. and 2 o clock P. M., which was adopted.

Mr. COX called up his motion of yesterday, inviting ministers of all denominations to officiate at the opening of the daily sessions of the House, which after some discussion, in which it was claimed that the matter was covered by an existing rule, was, on motion of Mr Foudray indefinitely postponed.

Mr OLNEY offered a joint resolution to amend the joint rules of the two Houses by adding a Joint Committee on Public Grounds and Buildings, to consist of two members on the part of the Senate and three on the part of the House, to be assisted by the respective presiding officers, and that such committee be instructed to consider so much of the Governor's Message as relates to said grounds and buildings and to report thereon by bill or otherwise. Adopted.

The special order of the day—a resolution to prohibit members whose seats are contested from voting on any question either directly or preliminary involving the same—was taken up. A call of the House was ordered and Messrs Locey, Upton and White were absent. During the discussion which followed relating to the adoption of Mr Upton's amendment to strike out the words "either direct or preliminary" (the absent members came in). Mr Upton's amendment carried and after some discussion on motion of Mr Humason the entire subject was postponed indefinitely.

On motion, at 11 30 o clock A. M. adjourned.

AFTERNOON

After some discussion the Senate joint resolution to print 1000 copies of the Governor's Inaugural Address was concurred in.

Mr COX offered a resolution directing the Sergeant at Arms to procure for the members of the House five dollars worth of postage stamps. The proposition was discussed at great length and finally lost.

Mr UPTON introduced petitions from James L. Collins and McM Dodson setting forth their claims to the seats now occupied by Messrs Dempsey and Hall of Polk county.

Mr BRENTS gave notice of his intention to introduce a bill to amend an act entitled an act to regulate the rate of interest on money and to prevent and punish usury.

Mr HERMAN offered a resolution directing the Sergeant-at-Arms to stamp such documents as members might desire to send to their constituents from time to time during the session. Lost.

The SPEAKER read a letter extending an invitation on the part of the House to attend a reception party to Governor Woods to be held at the Odd Fellows Hall in the evening.

At 3.45 o clock P. M. adjourned.

DATES TO SEPTEMBER 14

CHICAGO Sept 14—Gen Grant is mortified that the Cincinnati remarks addressed to the crowd who waited on him in the theatre [illegible] telegraphed over the country as [illegible] the crowd outside. He authorized a statement that [illegible] that he considers it incompatible with his duty as a soldier to take any part in politics, and being in the President's train by invitation he has sought [illegible] popular attention to himself [illegible] have been distasteful. He further [illegible] he shall take no part in politics [illegible] consider it his duty to resign from the army, but while the President is his commander [illegible] obedience to orders and [illegible] whether he approves [illegible] not. This statement was revised by [illegible] and telegraphed by the correspondent of the President's party.

CHICAGO Sept 14—The leading topic of city gossip in commercial circles in this city at present is the extraordinary demand which exists for wheat, which [illegible] price of No. 1 spring [illegible] the market as high as $2 20 per bushel. From all parts of the [illegible] orders come pouring into Chicago for wheat and with [illegible]. There is however an abundant harvest of an excellent quality.

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—A New Orleans special dispatch to the Times says the Chinese emigration agent [illegible] contract for the delivery of 200 000 Celestial laborers [illegible] the next five years [illegible].

The magnificent steamship Oregonian built at Williamsburg for the California and Oregon trade, made a successful trial trip down New York bay last Tuesday, making with twenty six pounds of steam eighteen revolutions per minute and sixteen miles per hour. The Secretary of War authorizes General Halleck to raise [illegible] new Cavalry regiments in the [illegible] General Sewell will superintend the recruiting [illegible] and Colonel Blake at Fort Vancouver for the departments of California and Columbia respectively.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH

SAN FRANCISCO Sept 14—The steamer Cawarra was wrecked near New castle Australia July 12th. The Sydney Herald gives the following particulars. Shortly after one o clock to-day a steamer supposed to be the Cawarra from [illegible] was signaled to the northward. At this time a fearful sea was running, and it was blowing a hurricane from the south-east. The signal was made to stand off. The vessel appeared to steam slowly and did not make the port till [illegible] at which time the sea took her near the oyster bank on the north shore. She struggled with the elements for a mo length of time, and seemed as if she would again succeed in getting out to sea, but judging from all appearances being very much down at the head she must have filled forward. At about three o clock she struck on the oyster bank and became unmanageable. The steamer was observed to turn about two or three times and she then settled down with her head to the north. The passengers and crew were seen huddled together on the poop and some made for the rigging. Extraordinary as it may appear, the life boat had not gone out up to this time. A few minutes after a funnel went over the side and three men were seen in the water. At about 3 15 the forepart of the vessel was seen under water and a few minutes after, the main mast went over carrying with it every living soul in that part of the ship into eternity. At 3 25 the foremast went on which some three or four men were climbing. In a few moments not a vestige of the ill fated Cawarra was seen and little hope was entertained that any of the passengers or crew would escape a watery grave. From the time the Cawarra struck till she disappeared only three-quarters of an hour elapsed. A number of people have gone over to the north shore to render assistance should any one succeed in reaching the land. Much is said about the life-boat not going out sooner. The matter will no doubt be investigated by the proper authorities. When she did put out the sea was so heavy that eight oars out of fourteen were broken, and she was compelled to return. During the same storm the schooner Carolina was wrecked and all hands lost. Several other vessels were also wrecked but the crews saved.

Peter Gerken proprietor of a grocery store on the north west corner of Mission and Main streets fell down while walking on Stewart street, and died in a few minutes after. Cause, heart disease.

Another distillery was confiscated by a verdict of a jury in the U. S. District Court yesterday.

The trial of Capt. Charles K. Nichols for aiding and abetting in the beating of Charles Strom a seaman on the ship Union during the voyage from New York to San Francisco is now progressing in the U. S. District Court. The testimony is very conflicting. Two negroes swearing strongly one way, and the Captain as strongly the other. The case has been continued to procure another witness.

The Markets.

Flour—Superfine hf sks per 196 lbs $4 75 @ $4 87½; qr sks $4 87½ @ 5, extra hf sks $5 12½ @ 5 25; qr sks $5 37½ @ 5 50.

Wheat—The receipts continue large, and in absence of any special demand large quantities are going into warehouse.

Sydney dates July 14 quote California wheat at $2 60—2 70 ₱ 100 lbs.

Liverpool mail dates of August 4th quote our wheat at $2 60 @ 2 78 ₱ 100 lbs. The telegraph dates of the 11th reports more firmness in the Liverpool market in consequence of recent wet weather having destroyed much grain. Sales for this market include Santa Clara $1 50, choice milling $1 50, good do $1 50, fair do $1 42½, good milling $1 45 per 100 lbs.

Shipping

Arrived, Sept 14—British ship Douglass 81 days from New Castle, New South Wales, via Hueneme, 30 days. Bark Orient 15 days from Port Ludlow.

Sailed, Sept. 14—Autocrat Puget Sound, brig Hugh Barclay, Puget Sound.

The Talk of Men and Women.—Some Frenchman of a statistical turn of mind, who evidently has but little to do, publishes in a Havre paper some curious statistics of the average talk of men and women. He has discovered that an ordinary middle aged man spends three hours per day in conversation, calculating at the rate of 100 words per minute, or 29 octavo pages per hour which would amount to 600 pages per week, or 52 big volumes a year. Having ascertained these facts as regards the masculine portion of the human race, the statistician applied his best energies to ascertain the amount of words uttered by an ordinary and middle aged female per minute and the amount of time spent on the average by that sex in general conversation. After the most patient investigation and abstruse calculation, this able arithmetician was compelled to give up the question, and confess that the magnitude of the figures, produced even at the outset of the inquiry, baffled all human calculation.

'An Acknowledged Institution.'—'Brown's Bronchial Troches,' are among the acknowledged institutions of the land. What would our ministers, our lecturers, our lawyers, do without these invaluable Troches? To what an amount of "ahems" and coughs, and throat clearings would we be all subjected, were it not for those all powerful and soothing lozenges? We have tried them and they have done us good.—New York Waverly.

THE THREATENING ASPECT OF the weather imperatively demands that, to avoid discomfort from the wet season now rapidly advancing every one should go to the ST LOUIS STORE, NO 111 FRONT STREET, and provide themselves with a suit of that SUPERB THICK CLOTHING which KOHN & FISHEL brought on and are constantly receiving EXPRESSLY FOR THIS CLIMATE. And do not forget to examine their EXTENSIVE STOCK of extra fine and heavy BOOTS AND SHOES.

THE PICTURE GALLERY.—ELLSWORTH & CARDWELL 80 First Street take the FINEST PICTURES and have the GALLERY par excellence, on the Pacific Coast, outside of San Francisco. And even that city, with all its wealth and facilities for doing business, cannot boast of a Photographic Establishment that can surpass this one for ARTISTIC STYLE and FINISH. Everything known to the Art executed in a FIRST CLASS manner.

The Graefenberg Company's Uterine CATHOLICON does not contain one particle of calomel or mercury and cases of Female Complaints which require other treatment than the Catholicon are extremely rare. It should be used in all cases of Deranged Monthly Periods, Weakness, Irregular Appetite, Nervousness, Headache, Disturbed Sleep, Acid Stomach, Nausea, Indigestion and Pains and Difficulties connected with the Uterine Organs.

THE UTERINE CATHOLICON

is a most successful remedy for Gravel and all affections of the Kidneys and Bladder, while in the troublesome symptoms attending Pregnancy, the benefits of the Catholicon are most remarkable. It is a perfect restorer of functional and general health, from budding womanhood to the turn of life, and those patients who have used the GRAEFENBERG COMPANY'S UTERINE CATHOLICON find difficulty in expressing their thankfulness for the beneficial effects of this wonderful medicine.

THE WEEKLY OREGONIAN

The Weekly Oregonian is published this morning. It contains the latest telegraphic news from the East and Europe, a selection of the best articles appearing in The Daily Oregonian—full and reliable news from the Mines, and the most copious and reliable information of public affairs published by any paper in the State.

The average amount of reading matter in the Weekly Oregonian is double that published by any other journal in Oregon and in the particular of Commercial statistics and the Markets we aim to make it the most reliable more especially in matters pertaining to Oregon interests.

Single copies 12½ cents or $3 00 per year to any part of the United States or British Columbia

Another Man Missing.—There are many strange circumstances, which when duly and carefully considered lead us to believe that there is at the present time an organized band of roughs in this city who are determined to make a raise out of that class of people whom they happen to pick up, and that the method adopted for putting men out of the way is about equal to the style which prevailed in the early days of San Francisco. Some of these circumstances it would not be judicious now to make public. But the most palpable evidence we have is in the sudden and mysterious disappearances mentioned this morning. In another place we record the unaccountable absence of Mr Thomas Hoare Now we are called upon to make public a circumstance much more mysterious. On Wednesday, of last week Mr Samuel Smith of Dallas, Polk county arrived in the city in company with a friend and has not been seen since. He was registered upon stopping in the city for a length of time, and for the purpose of keeping his horse at less expense, he left it at the Kees place eight miles south of Portland, on the Taylor's ferry road. He then came into town on the wagon of his friend and left it at No 1 stable, coming on down the street on foot. He registered his name at the Lincoln House paid for his bed and went out, but has not since been heard of His horse together with the saddle and bridle are yet on the Kees place, and his baggage is in the possession of his friend. It is said that Smith seldom drank that he was perfectly sober at six o clock that evening, and that he is of a very quiet turn of mind generally. It is supposed that he had considerable money about his person and that in some of his transactions he has inadvertently shown it, and been followed for the purpose.

Trial Trip of the Oregonian.—Our Eastern dispatches this morning give an account of the trial trip of the steamship Oregonian, in addition to which we have the following private dispatch sent yesterday

New York, Sept 14th 1866

F A Lamb The steamship Oregonian has had her trial trip at sea, which was a decided success. Made sixteen knots, with nineteen and one half revolutions. With two hundred tons coal on board draws nine and a half feet.

Ladd & Bradford

By the above it will be seen that this fine vessel—as excellent as any that are built in New York—is nearly ready to take her departure for this region After she arrives here our people will have an opportunity of showing the extent of their determination to have a line of first class ships in the Oregon trade by subscribing to the capital stock The Oregonian has cost $300,000, which may be considered to indicate what she is. We hope that with this ship as a nucleus for an Oregon Line, the moneyed men of this State will take an active part in securing what the trade demands, and must have. It is possible that the Oregonian will leave New York for the Pacific by the first of October.

Aground to the Rescue.—The Oregon Steam Navigation Company's steamer Rescue Capt James Strang, while en route for this city from Monticello yesterday, struck a snag or sunken rock in making a landing at Byers, two miles below the head of Sauvie's Island, on the bank, and sunk in about five feet of water We are unable to learn how badly the boat was injured but it is hoped not materially The accident occurred at two o'clock P M. The passengers were landed all safely as well as the cargo, consisting of four horses a wagon and some produce of the farm A small boat was sent to intercept the Fannie Troup en route for Vancouver in the [illegible], and that steamer visited the scene of the [illegible] brought the passengers and cargo on to this city where they arrived at 6 o clock P M One of the [illegible] Mr Byrd, who owned the horses and wagon lost a purse of money from his coat pocket, as that gentleman was laid aside while he assisted to right things. He is on his way to Birch creek Umatilla county

The Insane Man.—Sufficient evidence has accumulated to render it a positive fact that the man who [illegible] arrested Mr Spencer at the Dalles, on a requisition from the Governor of Illinois, is insane. He has been known by parties in California for two or three years past, and from information we have received concerning him, we are led to believe that he has procured [illegible] of papers which he has in his possession through [illegible] made by mail. He should be provided for in [illegible], and if possible be sent to the asylum, as there is good reason to expect that he will do more serious [illegible] to the community if allowed to run at large [illegible] than injure himself We are advised by a person who is a friend to the insane man, and who has known him for a long time, to caution the public to guard his [illegible] In his right mind he is a very peaceable and well [illegible] man, but now that he is bereft of his reasoning faculties he is dangerous [illegible]—Thomas Hoard, a young man who has for several months been employed in this city by Messrs. Rawling & Beebe and who but recently married, has been missing since Thursday morning. Wednesday morning he attended the furniture sale at Mr A B Richardson's, and bid off goods to the amount of between $300 and $400 On the morning of the day upon which he was missing he drew his money for the purpose of paying for the furniture, and has not been seen since. The goods were not paid for, and his sudden and mysterious disappearance is a source of great trouble and anxiety to his wife.

[illegible]—Mr John Mulhollan of Eugene City, was found in this city on the evening of Thursday last, a short distance above the steamship landing where he walked off the wharf, while intoxicated Dr Hoffmann held a coroner's inquest over the remains yesterday and the jury returned a verdict in accordance with the above facts. The body was sent forward to Salem last evening where friends of deceased will receive it, and take it on to Eugene City for burial. Mr Mulhollan had arrived in the city on Thursday from up the valley, with a team, and was to take back with him a load of merchandise the following day. He leaves a family

The Calico Ball.—We are pleased to learn that the Calico Ball at Vancouver on Thursday evening, in aid of the fund for the purchase of a fire engine, was very successful. The sum realized was $475 Portland contributed about $250. A subscription by citizens of Vancouver is [illegible] about $1,000 and the Vancouver City Council agrees to contribute $1 000 in currency, which will make a sum about equal to $2,000 in gold for the purpose. We [illegible] that the people there wish to procure one steam fire engine and one hook and ladder apparatus.

Infant Circus.—Another crowded audience witnessed the performance at Lee & Ryland's Pavillion last evening The children of Mrs Lee, two little girls and two little boys, are the sweetest performers that ever visited us. Indeed, this is the best circus troupe which has ever visited the turbulent shores of the Pacific and will probably continue to draw appreciative crowds for a long time to come See advertisement.

Special Trip.—As the circus of Lee & Ryland will not visit Vancouver, it has been arranged for the steamer Fannie Troup to make a special trip to Portland this evening, for the purpose of giving all a chance to attend who so desire. The steamer will leave Portland at the close of the circus this evening

[illegible]—An absconding debtor by the name of Hartley, from Olive Creek, Grant county was returned from Astoria by the steamer Montana last evening having been taken by the officers at the latter place in his attempt to leave the State.

[illegible]—Among the distinguished visitors at present in our city, is Mr C E Tilton, of New York City and of the firm of Ladd & Tilton, here. Mr T came over land via Denver and Boise

Base Ball Practice.—We have been requested to state that the members of the Pioneer Base Ball Club will meet on the grounds corner of Oak and Fifth streets for practice this afternoon at five o'clock

Benefit of Harry Jackson.—On Monday evening the [illegible] Circus will present its greatest attractions to the public, on the occasion of the benefit to Harry Jackson the popular Shakesperian clown and jester

Gone East.—United States Marshal Bennett is contemplating a visit to the East, soon after his successor shall qualify and take possession of the papers and business of the office.

The Mule Gone!—As will be seen by advertisement ex-Street Commissioner Simmons' mule, so long and favorably known in Portland, will be sold at auction today

Arrival of the Montana.—The steamship Montana, Capt. Kelly, of the Anchor Line, arrived at 10 o clock last evening, three and a half days from San Francisco The [illegible] left San Francisco on the 11th at 11 30 A M Passed the Orizaba outside the Columbia river bar at 9 A M, yesterday Crossed the bar at 9:30 A M She brings the following passengers B Kohn J W Dilbert M Jacobs, P I Martin H C Small, E Heller Mrs C Levy and servant, Mrs Mary Harrison, Mrs Mary Burrell Mrs Gilmore and 2 children, S F Bailey M G Kinney C Sturm Mrs C M Ross Mrs Wm B Peters and 3 children, Mrs C Russell, H E Hill, E D Lewelling John L Belf Miss Laura Bell, Miss Mary Lock, Miss Dunbar Mrs Young and two children, Mrs M J G Baker K Lewis, W Jackson and wife, M Roberts, Wm Hallick J W Welsh Dr Trenchor Capt McNulty F A Davis, Mrs David Logan Mrs A J Hansford, Mrs Mulligan L Land Geo S Loucke Wm Currier, A Stacus P O Clark John Major F K Arnold C J Ripley S F Pershin D S Rowland Philip Miller D Horton, J Teal, M S Hart, E M Walker J L Stevens, C T Strobe, B Bartlett T McGowan Col Taylor and J D Rogers.

A drove of 1 200 sheep passed through Jacksonville a few days ago for California They were driven from Douglas county

The Oregon Sentinel comes to us this week in a new dress and an enlarged sheet. It is a good paper and of course thoroughly Union and anti-Andy

The ladies of Salem gave a reception to Gov Woods on Thursday evening at the hall of Chemeketa Lodge of Odd Fellows The beauty and chivalry of Salem were gathered there, to say [illegible] It was [illegible] represented [illegible]

The races [illegible] on Tuesday Sept [illegible] Addison Holmes [illegible] we have had for many years The following horses are in training Jo Walker [illegible] Jim Green [illegible] Chief S[illegible] ewell [illegible] Park [illegible] It is expected that [illegible] from Scott Valley are expected to participate

The Sentinel says of the grain crop of Jackson county now that the threshing season is somewhat advanced farmers are able to judge of the amount of grain raised this season The yield this county falls far short of what was expected The straw was large and stood thick on the ground but the heads were short and many of them were only partially filled The grain that has been raised is of a superior quality The same complaints are made of crops in the northern counties and from private letters we learn that receipts of breadstuffs will not fall and that the surplus will not be as great as had been supposed

Mr W R Dunbar an employe at the Siletz Reservation a few nights since attacked and killed a large cougar within the inclosure of his house while the animal was in the act of capturing one of Mr D s dogs He first [illegible] the animal supposing it in the dark to be a dog but discovering it to be a more formidable and ferocious antagonist, he fired several shots quickly from a pistol and succeeded with the sixth shot in forcing a surrender The animal measured seven feet from tip to tip Mr D had a narrow escape as the cougar leaped twice at him during the encounter The Indians looked upon the affair as a case of 'Skookum tum tum

Our Dalles correspondent writes that more Indian depredations have been committed on the Canyon City road The news by stage from Camp Watson and the South Fork of John Day's river is very important. The Indians came down to South Fork and drove in five men that were employed by Mr A Botte in baling hay The Indians stole one horse and other articles that were left by the fleeing party Two days after—Monday evening—they again visited Rock Creek station and stole the stage horses, then went over to the Fort and made another requisition on the Quartermaster's department, taking twenty five more of those mules that were left for the use of the A Q M They drove them within one mile of the garrison and killed one and cut out a large piece for subsistence on their journey Nine head of work oxen are missing—supposed to be stolen Col Baker started after the red scoundrels immediately with fifteen picked men determined to have Indians or blood This stealing his stock right under the eaves of the Fort seems to make him earnest in the fight. Our informant says it is believed that if something is not done shortly for the further protection of the Canon City route it will become necessary to temporarily suspend the mail service Owing to the state of affairs in the vicinity of the road at present, it is impossible to keep stock on the road with any degree of safety There should be at least three hundred men stationed at Camp Watson and vicinity for active service. Nothing less than activity of the soldiery will avail anything in that locality now Advices warrant me in saying that it is really unsafe for one or two men to travel along the road alone

Marvelous beyond precedent is the effect of Sozodont upon the whole economy of the mouth keeping the gums rosy and healthy, the teeth in perfect order giving to the breath a balmy fragrance

The undersigned, who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions the sale of which daily increases The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise which commands here and in the markets of the interior a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark seek to deceive the public palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters Nevertheless buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice

The Miner.

BY JAMES RUSSELL LOWELL.

Down 'mid the tangled roots of things
That coil about the central fire,
I seek for that which giveth wings,
To stoop, not soar, to my desire.

Sometimes I hear, as 'twere a sigh,
The sea's deep yearning far above,
"Thou hast the secret not," I cry,
"In deeper deeps is hid my Love."

They think I burrow from the sun,
In darkness, all alone and weak;
Such loss were gain if He were won,
For 'tis the sun's own Sun I seek.

The earth, they murmur, is the tomb
That vainly sought his life to prison;
Why grovel longer in its gloom!
He is not here; He hath arisen.

More life for me where He hath lain
Hidden, while ye believed him dead,
Than in cathedrals cold and vain,
Built on loose sands of "It is said."

My search is for the living gold,
Him I desire who dwells recluse,
And not His image, worn and old,
Day-servant of our sordid use.

If Him I find not, yet I find
The ancient joy of cell and church,
The glimpse, the surety undefined,
The unquenched ardor of the search.

Happier to chase a flying goal,
Than to sit counting laurelled gains,
To guess the Soul within the soul,
Than to be the lord of what remains.

FROM MONTANA.

The following items are from the Helena Gazette of Aug. 25th:

MINING NEWS.

On Wednesday last, it is estimated that one million and a half, in gold dust, left this city for Fort Benton. This vast sum was in the hands of a few men—mostly miners—and was under an armed escort of men employed to protect it on its way East. Half of this sum is the product of a mining claim on Confederate Gulch, belonging to two individuals, who go home with a fortune procured in a little time. Confederate Gulch is the richest placer mine ever known.

We were very agreeably surprised to see the amount of labor expended on the ditches and flumes at this town, when we passed through it last Tuesday. Preparations are about completed for ground-sluicing the bars of Prickley Pear in and near Montana. There is every reason to hope and believe that profitable mining will be done this fall and next spring on the Prickley Pear river. Every cabin is now full of occupants at Montana, and industry and thrift will soon bring it into notice.

Capt. Townsend is making things lively in St. Louis Gulch. Through his enterprise a ditch has been brought into this gulch from Skelly's Gulch, which will afford a sufficient quantity of water to wash out a vast quantity of gold that is known to abound in St. Louis Gulch. It is very probable that this enterprise has been overlooked by people seeking profitable investment or employment.

From private letters just received from the Post-master in Boulder, we learn that mills and furnaces are being erected for the purpose of reducing the quartz and extracting the precious metals. Boulder is one of the finest valleys in the Territory, and there are some of the best leads located there. We request our friends there to keep us posted on all matters of interest to them, which, we have no doubt, will be very acceptable to the public generally.

From the best information we have been able to gather Elk Creek, so far as this season is concerned, may be set down as a failure. In support of this assertion, we are informed that business is suspended generally, and buildings may now be purchased for what the nails cost in their erection; and the whole truth may as well be told at once. We very much fear that "Bear" and "Deep" gulches have been overrated in the estimation of gold seekers. A few claims upon each are more than ordinarily rich in precious metals, but this class of diggings will not support large camps nor a numerous population. So long as the tributaries of Elk, Bear and Douglas supplied the industrious miner with the necessary element, so long Reynolds City presented an animated appearance, and traders, saloon keepers, etc., flourished. But when water failed upon the tributaries, the miner left also. We predict, however, that a revival in mining and mercantile business will revisit this camp with the coming spring.

The Post of the 25th ult. has the following:

Roach & Co. are running a ditch for the purpose of conveying the water from Williams' gulch to the bar claims in the vicinity of Nevada. When the work is completed, which will be in a short time, the weekly yields of the mines in that quarter will be increased materially. The men who have undertaken the enterprise, lack neither energy, industry, capital or skill, and will undoubtedly reap a rich reward for their labor, and a liberal interest on the capital of the investment. The bar upon which Nevada City is located, is known to be rich, and has never been worked on account of the scarcity of water—and taken in connection with the various other bars above and below, which prospect equally well, cannot fail to remunerate the parties who have so nobly undertaken the task of providing the facilities with which they may be worked.

We learn from a gentleman just in from the Yellowstone, that on the 6th inst., a man by the name of Henry Freeman, formerly of Lockport, New York,—and who was in the employ of Col. Sawyer's expedition, while attempting to effect a crossing of the Yellowstone River, was thrown from his mule and drowned before assistance could be rendered. Lockport papers are requested to copy.

We were shown, at the bank of Hussey, Dahler & Co., on Wednesday last, thirty-two ounces of amalgam, which was taken from a ton of rock that came from the Alameda quartz lode. The rock was "crushed up" in the Seneca Falls mill, which has recently been purchased by Mr. Jones, agent for a heavy New York company. It is said that the rock was but the average from the lode.

INDIAN SCOUTS.—General McDowell takes a step in the right direction in providing for Indians to fight Indians, in the following order:

"A recent law of Congress authorizes the employment of a certain number of Indian scouts, 'to receive the pay and allowance of cavalry soldiers, and to be discharged whenever the necessity for their further employment is abated, or at the discretion of the Department Commander.' Under this law the General commanding the Department has been authorised to enlist and employ one hundred scouts. The brave Pimos and Maricopas, whose term of service is about to expire, have within the past year, in their expeditions from Fort McDowell and vicinity, been successful in ten engagements with the Apaches, killing seventy-five, capturing thirty-three, and destroying many rancherias, together with a large quantity of property. To continue, as far as the limited power allowed will permit, the good results they have obtained, the Colonel commanding the District of Arizona will proceed to enlist and employ seventy of the best and most distinguished of the Pimos and Maricopas who may be willing to enter the service as scouts, to operate as heretofore, from Fort McDowell or from Fort Grant, as he may judge best. He will also enlist twenty of the best of what are known as the 'tame Apaches' and Papagos in Southern Arizona. These enlistments will be made by an officer of the army at Sacaton and one at Tucson or Fort Mason, to be named by the District Commander."

RESULTS OF JOHNSONISM.—The following is a late dispatch from New Orleans:

A conservative gentleman, just arrived from Alabama, states that, emboldened by the riots in this city and the President's policy, the rebels have commenced persecuting Union men with the intention of forcing them to leave the State. Alluding to last Monday's massacre, The Times of to-day's issue says that the sidewalk in front of the Mechanics' Institute ran in blood. Within the past three days over 1,000 Union people have fled to the North, and before the lapse of another week the number will have been greatly increased. The rebels are exulting over what they have accomplished in breaking up the Convention and expelling the Union men. Lieut.-Gov. Voorhees has, in connection with Mayor Munroe, chief of assassins and thugs, sent, at the President's request, a statement of the massacre of Monday. Hundreds of men have received notices to leave this evening. Maj. B. Rush Plumly was threatened with assassination within hearing of your correspondent on the corner of St. Charles and Canal streets. Lieut. Butts of the Freedmen's Bureau has been murdered and robbed in Jackson Parish.

TOASTS AT RICHMOND.—Toasts suitable to the tastes of reconstructed Johnson chivalry, which were offered at a public celebration in Richmond, and are now widely and approvingly copied in Southern papers:

"Virginia, the home of the brave, though no longer the land of the free. Her soil is sacred still to the memory of her gallant dead."

"Our glorious dead—they have crossed over the river, and they rest in the shade of the trees." Responded to by Colonel McIntosh and Captain Daniels.

"Stonewall Jackson—the worshipped hero of a great though conquered people. His name will be the honored theme of song and story, when those of his revilers will be buried in contumely."

"Jefferson Davis—the caged eagle; the bars confine his person, but his great spirit still soars. He suffers for a nation which loves him, but he is consoled by the admiration and sympathy of the Christian world."

"Robert E. Lee—Sooner turn the sun from his course than turn Fabricius from the path of honor."

A QUEER FRIEND.—The President's remark to Dr. Randolph that he was the true frend of the negroes, notwithstanding his veto to every measure of Congress designed for their benefit, reminds us, says an exchange, of what John Minor Botts stated at Baltimore, viz., that "the Democratic politicians in the South would eat, drink and sleep with negroes, if they could take them to the polls next day."

THE editor of the Peoria Democrat, who was the first man to suggest the assassination of President Lincoln, nominates W. W. O'Brien as the Bread-and-Butter candidate for Congressman at large for Illinois. O'Brien was one of the leaders in the infamous Peoria Convention, held in 1864, wherein was inaugurated the attempt to release rebel prisoners in Camp Douglas.

WHAT JOHNSONISM IS.—We commend the following to the notice of the few papers in California claiming to be Union which support Johnson's policy and the Philadelphia Convention, in being an extract from the remarks of a rebel General, Chalmers, made at a late meeting in Memphis, called to choose delegates to the late Johnson or Philadelphia Convention:

He could never forget the heroic character of Jefferson Davis, grand in power but even more sublime while they were placing the shackles upon his limbs—he had been the faithful guardsman on the watchtower, and a true sentinel at his post; he was the last to leave the Senate halls, and only did so when called from his high station by his mother State. He was now bearing the weight of grief for his people. He had loved that great and good man when in power, and he loved him now. He is chained and shackled, but his spirit has never been conquered. Clay might have been a greater statesman, Webster a better orator, Napoleon a more accomplished warrior, but none of them combined the united energies and qualifications of Jefferson Davis; and few men were his equals. He said he was not here to drop the tear over hopes lost; we were on the eve of another revolution, and we had met here to heal the dissensions.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

WEEKLY REVIEW.

PORTLAND, FRIDAY, 2 P. M.,
Sept. 14th 1866.

Our dates overland are from New York to the 11th of August, and from San Francisco to the 8th of September. There has been but little occurring during the interval since the sailing of the last steamer.

The money market shows no material change; there is, however, an evident increase in the supplies of coin on the coast, consequent upon an improved activity at the San Francisco branch mint. The amount of business sent thither in August, 1866, was double that sent the month previous.

The product of gold and silver bullion in the country grows imperceptibly, and is reaching figures which are passing beyond the estimates of production in California and in this State. The internal tax indicates this. Bullion was first taxed under the act of March 3, 1864, and the first returns to the Washington office were made in October of that year. The tax was one-half of one per cent. ad valorem to March 3, 1865, when it was increased to three-fifths of one per cent., paid by the assayer. An official comparative statement showing the tax collected on bullion, and the value of the bullion on which the tax was paid, in the United States for nine months of the fiscal year ending June 30, 1865, and for the first eleven months of the fiscal year ending June 30, 1866, shows that California and Oregon paid nearly 80 per cent of this tax, amounting to $297,573 94, in eleven months of the past fiscal year. The whole amount of bullion assayed in these two States in the eleven months of the fiscal year of 1866 was, it appears, $45,086,118 for California, and $4,606,205 for Oregon. Much of the bullion assayed in California was, most undoubtedly, from Oregon, and under these circumstances it would be difficult to amplify the return so as to show the aggregate production of Oregon. Much of the bullion assayed in New York and Pennsylvania was from Eastern Oregon and Idaho, having gone east from the mountains by overland stages. The aggregate assays returned from all quarters, for the eleven months of the fiscal year, is given at $70,201,365. The aggregate production estimated for the year, shows that California is losing her relative rank as a gold producer, while Oregon is rapidly gaining a rank.

Aside from the failure of Messrs. Moore & Fogus, there are no incidents of special remark, and we have no more to offer at present in this particular than what has already been given.

Wholesale and Jobbing Prices.

PORTLAND, September 14, 1866.

Business continues to move along in the wholesale and jobbing department of our trade, with the usual activity which has characterized the market during the entire season past. ### Domestic Produce Market.

PORTLAND, September 14, 1866.

Throughout the week, with the exception of one day—when there was quite an active inquiry to fill a special order for Barley and Oats, at which time sales of 8,000 lbs. of Barley was made at at 1½c. and 12,000 lbs. of Oats at 1½c. sacked—this market has been neglected, and with comparatively light arrivals and no export demand, we have to note a continuation of the languor indicated by our last report. Wheat comes forward in very small parcels, and as the milling demand is restricted, sales are only effected through concessions on the part of the producer.

The California Farmer, which most undoubtedly aims to represent the interests of the farming community, under date of Sept. 1st, says:

"Our Grain and Produce Markets are less active, and prices of last week are not the rates of this day. Receipts are very large, and buyers evince no anxiety to take hold. Our own opinion is that it is the disposition of buyers (exporters) to further depress prices. With but one agent or one buyer for all exporters, the farmers have a hard task, and are forced to take what they can get. Our Grain Market, like any other market in California, has but few interested that can operate. Farmers or producers, as a general thing, are men of limited capital. They, from force of circumstances, are compelled to market their grain, or most of it, as soon as it is ready. Who of us that has been in the State for the past eight or ten years, and that has watched the course of the Grain Market, have not seen the same or a similar programme acted that is now before us: Large quantities of Grain or Flour offered on our market by different parties—a turn effected here and then large purchases made in the country at depressed rates. In times past, when Flour was high and thousands in want through the instrumentality of one, and now, the leading spirit in the Grain Market, large quantities were sold and used for distilling. The cries of the hungry did not affect the feelings of the speculator, and the poor, or those in moderate circumstances are the sufferers. A steady market at fair rates would benefit all; the rapid advances and falls are what ruin all."

The rates prevailing in this market to-day, for leading articles of domestic produce, are as follows:

|---|---|
| Wheat, new, ⅌ bushel | 65@70 |
| Oats ⅌ bushel | 37½ |

Weekly Retail Family Market.

PORTLAND, September 14, 1866.

In the retail family market this morning vegetables and fruit are being offered in abundance, and some of the qualities are really a credit to our home producers. Hood river peaches, delivered by the steamer Wilson G. Hunt, and raised by Mr. Coe, of Wasco county, are the only fine flavored peaches in market; they retail at prices between 16@18 cts. ⅌ lb. Fine Bartlett Pears, grown by Mr. Piercey, many of which would weigh 1 lb. each, retail at 5 cts. ⅌ lb.; Tomatoes, equal to the finest varieties we have ever seen, are selling at 5 cts. ⅌ lb., grown by Mr. Kelly, east of Portland.

Game begins to arrive more freely. We quote grouse 62½@75 cts. ⅌ pair; Pheasants, 50@62½ do.; Quail, $2 ⅌ doz. The largest proportion of game offered to-day is of excellent quality, occasionally there is a lot offered which is totally unfit for use, from the fact that they have been too long killed for the hot weather. There is no change in Poultry. We quote the retail prices of first class articles as follows:

|---|---|---|---|
| FRUIT. | | Butter, Cooking | 33 |
| Dried Apples | 15 | " Ordinary | 35 |

Cotton Goods and Woolen Market.

PORTLAND, September 14, 1866.

The tone of the general market is steady. There has been a very perceptible increase of activity in woolen goods, and the manufactures of the Oregon City company are taken off readily according to the wants of the trade, at our quoted prices. The work of this company is exerting a very favorable influence on trade, and is greatly reducing the importation of foreign fabrics without adversely affecting the market. The agents in this city, Messrs. L. White & Bro., have a new and really fine article of olive colored beaver at $3 ⅌ yard. Another article of heavy ladies' cloth, water proof, single and double width, attracts considerable attention, selling at $1 75 ⅌ yard for the double, and 80 cts. ⅌ yard for the single width. Some very fine heavy shirting is being sold at 70 cts. The standard marks for blankets will soon be changed by the introduction of an extra quality of white, about to be placed upon the market, also from the Oregon City Manufacturing Company.

In cotton goods there is quite an improvement of trade, but prices have scarcely varied. We quote:

OREGON WOOLEN GOODS.—Blankets, Oregon gray, quality No. 2, $7 00; do. white, No. 1, $9 00; do. No. 2, $8 00. 8-4 White flannel, $1 10@$1 25; 4-4 White do. 63c; 3-4 White do. 47½@50c; Plain assorted colors, flannel, 50c; Twilled do. 55@60c; Grey Mixed Shirting 55c; Hardtimes, $1 05; Grey Doeskin, $1 10@1 30; Drab Mixed Beaver, $1 10; Fancy Cassimeres, $1 10@$1 50; Tweeds, 85@90c.

Cattle and Live Stock Market.

PORTLAND, September 14, 1866.

The market during the week has presented no particular change from last week. The sales have been, to a great extent, at current prices. We quote:

CATTLE—Beef cows and steers, $4 ⅌ cwt net.
SHEEP—Good yearling weathers, $2 ⅌ head.
HOGS—Average prices, gross weight, 5 cts. ⅌ lb.
VEAL CALVES—Average, $5@7 ⅌ head.

SOMETHING NEW!

THE NEW LIGHT!

DANFORD'S

Atmospheric Coal Oil Gas Lamp!

ARTIFICIAL LIGHT OF SOME SORT, IS A UNIVERSAL necessity. A Safe, Cheap and Brilliant one is a Luxury—a luxury only enjoyed heretofore by those who live in large cities where Gas is used. Years of study and much capital have been exhausted in experiments to produce a lamp wherein the ordinary Kerosene or Coal Oil could be used without a chimney, and without unpleasant odor while in use. That fruitful source of expense, trouble and annoyance, the chimney, is in DANFORD'S COAL OIL GAS LAMP avoided; it is the most perfect Lamp and will entirely supersede all other Coal Oil Lamps; it is the cheapest artificial light that can be used, yielding the light of an ordinary six foot Gas burner for less than ½ cent per hour, or double the quantity of light of an ordinary Chimney Lamp, for one third the cost. It will burn when turned down to a taper-light, ten hours for a cent, is free from smoke, can be carried from room to room and the wind will not blow it out. These LAMPS will be on exhibition and for sale at the Music and Art Gallery of Shanahan & Dufrene, corner of Morrison and First streets.

"CONSTITUTION WATER,"

THE ONLY REMEDY FOR DISEASES OF THE

BLADDER, KIDNEYS,

Gravel, Dropsical Swellings,

GENITAL DEBILITY, ETC.

THE ASTONISHING SUCCESS WHICH HAS ATtended this invaluable medicine renders it the most valuable one ever discovered. No language can convey an adequate idea of the immediate and almost miraculous change which it occasions in the debilitated and shattered system. In fact, it stands unrivalled as a remedy for the permanent cure of the maladies above-mentioned, and also—

DIABETES, IMPOTENCY,
LOSS OF MUSCULAR ENERGY,
PHYSICAL PROSTRATION,
INDIGESTION,
SEMINAL WEAKNESS,
GLEET, FLUOR ALBUS,

And in every disease in any way connected with the disorder or decay of the PROCREATIVE FUNCTIONS. Persons about to marry, if conscious of any weakness, should take the

CONSTITUTION WATER,

Whether broken down by excess, weak by nature, or impaired by sickness, the unstrung and relaxed organization is at once rebraced, revivified and built up. Well may this celebrated medicine be called the

MEDICAL WONDER.

The stooping, trembling victim of depression and debility becomes a new man; he stands erect, he moves with a firm step; his mind, which was previously sunk in gloom of an almost idiotic apathy, becomes bright and active; and he goes forth regenerated, conscious of new vigor.—The medicine reaches the CONSTITUTION itself, and restores it to its normal condition.

IRRITATION OF THE NECK OF THE BLADDER,
INFLAMMATION OF THE KIDNEYS, AND
CATARRH OF THE BLADDER,
STRANGUARY AND BURNING, OR PAINFUL URINATING,
CALCULUS, GRAVEL,
BRICK DUST DEPOSIT, AND MUCOUS
OR MILKY DISCHARGES AFTER URINATING.

For these diseases it is truly a sovereign remedy, and too much cannot be said in its praise. A single dose has been known to relieve the most urgent symptoms. TRY IT in these cases, and you will ever give praise to

CONSTITUTION WATER.

Males or Females,

Are you troubled with that distressing pain in the small of the back, and through your hips? CONSTITUTION WATER will relieve you like magic.

THAT OLD GREENBACK

I am still obliged to accept of Legal Tender Notes at Par (and have been since Dec. 17, 1862, for the rest of my Handsome Brick Store, corner of Morrison and Front streets, I feel compelled to announce for the benefit of the public, that JACOB MAYER and the building of me Feb. 1862, for a term of years, at time there was no such thing vogue, and it was understood the were Cash. Since the date above I have received the depreciated regularly for the rent of the making less than two-fifths of the real said Mayer was to pay. He had building at very advantageous rates even were he now to comply with his contract, and pay in Coin, would be the best bargain in the city. I make this statement to show the public what kind of a man he must be to take such undue advantage of the times to convert a few dollars to himself by LEGAL SWINDLING. The public can readily see how much it costs to have such tenants in such costly buildings as the one referred to above.

CITY OF PARIS STORE
